WHO WE ARE

The ICCI Council is the student-run academic society that represents the interests of students enrolled in the Institute of Communication, Culture, Information & Technology (ICCI) at the University of Toronto Mississauga.

We host over 40 events annually, both on our own and in collaboration with on and off-campus organizations. Our events include academic, creative, networking, and social events for the student body. The goal of our events is to enhance student connections and help build a community.

ICCI programs focus on the generation, diffusion, and social impacts of new technologies; in particular, how media and technologies interact with commerce, culture, and communication. Our students are prepared for various careers including UI/UX Design, Marketing, Business Analytics, Project Management, Software Development, and Professional Writing.

MISSION STATEMENT

As the official academic society for the Institute of Communication, Culture, Information and Technology, it is our responsibility to represent the interests of all current and prospective ICCIT students. We advocate on students' behalf, acting as a conduit between students and faculty. Our events enrich the undergraduate experience for students to explore academic and career alternatives, grow their portfolios, and make meaningful connections.
